ACKNOWLEDGED GIFTS.

After yesterday's sessions of the legislative graft investigation committee in New York had been marked by the failure of witness after witness to remember details sought by the probes, the tedium was relieved by the frank announcement of a hand-to-hand gift of $6,000 in cash by the legislative agent of the Lyons (N. Y.) Sugar Refining Company to former Senator John Raines and former Assemblyman Jean L. Burnett, both now dead.

H. F. Zimmerman, the man who passed the money, described it as an unconditional gift made in recognition of good work in securing the passage of legislation beneficial to the Lyons Sugar Refining Company.

In addition to the $6,000 given to Raines and Burnett, Zimmerman said he had passed $300 to Charles A. Betts, then chief clerk of the revision department of the assembly for his "good work." Half of the money handed to Burnett, the witness said, was to be used as the latter "saw fit" in recompensing other persons.

Legislation in connection with the beet sugar bounties paid by the state, Mr. Zimmerman said, was the subject that interested his company. In 1905, the witness said, Mr. Raines had suggested drawing up a new sugar bounty bill to take the place of the act of 1897, which had lapsed. The new act made the bounty payable to the farmer "or his assigns," instead of the manufacturer. Mr. Zimmerman added that he had discussed the bill while pending with Assemblyman A. P. Smith, of Wayne, and Jean L. Burnett, of Ontario, and also with Charles H. Betts, then chief clerk of the revision department of the assembly. He had told Senator Raines and Assemblyman Burnett that if the bill passed the company "ought to show its appreciation." Both had promised to do all in their power to further the passage of the bill.

Upon the bill becoming law the witness had obtained from the Lyons Sugar Refining Company $6,000 to be divided among the friends of the measure as material evidence of its appreciation. Mr. Zimmerman said he gave $3,000 in currency to Senator Raines in one of the committee rooms, and the senator had pocketed the bills without counting them.

A few days later, according to the witness, he gave Assemblyman Burnett, in the assembly parlor, $3,000 in two packages, telling him $1,500 was for his own use and $1,500 for distribution "as he saw fit." He would not say to whom the Lyons Company wished the latter $1,500 to go.

In describing the benefits of the legislation for which the gifts had been made Zimmerman said that his company had made the most of the clause in the new act making the sugar bounty payable to the farmer "or his assigns," by persuading the farmers to assign their bounties to the company.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and read not wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if neglected, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

MINISTER PLEADS GUILTY.

Rev. Clinton DeWitt Sharpe, who has maintained his innocence of the charge of abducting 14-year-old Eunice Wittaker from her home in Schenectady, N. Y., last June, changed his plea to guilty when arraigned in the Supreme Court in Schenectady, yesterday, and now faces a term of 10 years in prison, a $1,000, or both.

"Clinton DeWitt Sharpe, you are indicted by the grand jury for abducting 14-year-old Eunice Wittaker, and taking her away for improper purposes, she not being your wife, declared District Attorney Briggs."

Sharpe, dressed in black and wearing a black bow necktie, answered in a clear voice: "I plead guilty, but I wish to say that no harm was intended when I took the girl away. I enter that plea merely in order to save trouble and expense."

The evangelist spoke for himself, having no lawyer. Sharpe, after two months' absence, gave himself up to the Kansas City police and was taken back to Schenectady. Miss Wittaker, who rebuked her parents when first returned to Schenectady, is anxious to return to her home, which she had not seen in four months. She is in the custody of the humane society, at present.

RETIREES ON A FORTUNE.

Policeman Anton Klinger, of Chicago, will be retired this week. He has accumulated $300,000 in the 40 years he has been in the department. Here are his rules:

Keep out of saloons. Never play any gambling game. Never report late for duty. Always be respectful to your superior. Always turn your money over to your wife, and invest it in good real estate.

"When I joined the force," said Klinger, "I was worth $500. As an officer I was paid $65 a month at the start. Every pay day that money was turned over to my wife. To help our earnings, she and I sewed for tailor shops evenings. When we had collected the first $1,000 we invested it in real estate, which we sold at a good profit a year later. After the first thousand the rest is easy."

ACROSS THE CONTINENT ON SKATES.

Abe Levin and Max Brody, 16 years old, have just completed a trip from New York to San Francisco on skates and afoot carrying a sealed message to Mayor McCarthy from the mayor of New York.

By performing that feat, which was accomplished in 106 days, the boys won $2,000 apiece from a skate manufacturer in New York, which they intend to use in paying their way through college.

They started out on their journey without a cent on May 9, covering the distance to Chicago on skates. From Chicago to San Francisco they traveled on foot, owing to the roughness of the country.

On the entire trip they slept in the open, working at farmhouses when they found it necessary to earn a little money.

CAVALIERI TO SUE FOR SEPARATION.

The New York Morning Telegraph says:

"Lina Cavalieri will sue her bridegroom of a few weeks, former Sheriff Robert Winthrop Chanler, for separation. She will base her suit on the grounds of nonsupport, of violent treatment and behavior, and incompatibility of temper."

The singer has announced herself as having been duped by misrepresentation. Her marriage with Chanler, she says, so far from doing her good in the eyes of society and the musical public to which she devoted her most serious ambitions and most laborious energies, has only done her harm.

"This information is derived from people who have been in close contact with Lina Cavalieri up to a week ago, who describes her as deeply depressed over the turn things have taken."

"It should be understood that divorce or no divorce the now noted prenuptial settlement has all the validity it ever had. The talk about undue influence, it is contended, is all moonshine on the ground that a wife cannot exercise undue influence over her husband."

"But such is the state of Lina Cavalieri's mind as regards the whole Chanlerian war that she will probably suffer the prenuptial settlement to become a dead letter."

HEAVY RAINFALL.

Deluged by the heaviest rainfall in 40 years, a wide strip of country extending from eastern Texas northeastward across the northern portion of Louisiana and Mississippi and over parts of Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, southern Indiana and Ohio, almost to Pittsburg, is in spots an inland sea.

While the rain continues in the northernmost part of this area, the storm has ceased in the northwest and a cold wave has dropped temperatures 30 degrees.

Only two lives are known to have been lost. Mrs. A. J. Burchfield and her grandson were drowned in a rapidly rising stream near Dyersburg, Tenn. Washouts on railroads in some parts of Kentucky and Tennessee are numerous, and many trains are off schedules; the delivery of mail by rural carriers has been abandoned in some quarters, and there has been much damage to farm lands and corn in the shock.
